Subject: Fw: Countered: Rob's Pavillion assistance

Sandy, I could call in for a discussion at this time. Since I have a medical appointment first thing on Friday, I was planning on working a partial day from home. However, we are so crunched for time in the Pavillion schedule that Greg and I would like to sit down today or tomorrow with Rob to go over the information for the assistance that is being sought on the Comment Response Summary so he can begin working on it asap. A draft of the document is due on Oct 5 to Dave Jewett and I for review.
